Be thankful

For being able to see the sparkling light

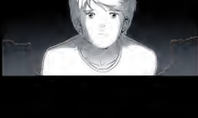
For being able to feel the warm air

For your heart beating fiercely in your chest

Be thankful for all these blessings God has given.

I lost all these things for going against God.

I wanted to live.



I wanted to live so badly I could die.

Even if I had to die,

I wanted to live.

*Pepero is a type of chocolate covered pretzel stick. It's Pocky. The literal translation for this Red Pepero Day is 4/4 - drinking when people eat Pepero... because the pretzel sticks look red like blood.
